IADR Announces Recipients of the 2025 IADR KULZER Travel Award

Alexandria, VA, USA – The International Association for Dental, Oral, and Craniofacial Research (IADR) has announced the 2025 recipients of the IADR KULZER Travel Award. The recipients were recognized during the Opening Ceremonies of the 103rd General Session of the IADR, which was held in conjunction with the IADR/Pan European Regional Congress on June 25-28, 2025 in Barcelona, Spain.

The recipients are:

- Maria Helena Borges
State University of Campinas, Piracicaba, Brazil
- Sepideh Fallah
Queen Mary University of London, UK
- Yo-Shiuan Fan
Osaka University, Japan
- Ulysses Lenz
The University of Passo Fundo, Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil
- Rafaela Passos de Souza
The Western University, London, Canada

Supported by KULZER for 16 years, the IADR KULZER Travel Award encourages young investigators to undertake research in new and innovative testing methods of dental materials, and new ideas and approaches to improve and develop dental materials. Recipients receive a travel award of $2,500 to attend and present at the IADR General Session, and a commemorative plaque.

About IADR

The International Association for Dental, Oral, and Craniofacial Research (IADR) is a nonprofit organization with a mission to drive dental, oral, and craniofacial research for health and well-being worldwide. IADR represents the individual scientists, clinician-scientists, dental professionals, and students based in academic, government, non-profit, and private-sector institutions who share our mission.
